

ALLEGRA +LEUCEMIA

Name: Allegra

About: Allegra was rescued along with her two kittens, Farra and Felicia near a car garage in San Pedro Alcántara. Both she and her babies are very sweet and affectionate. She was a very young mummy at almost one year old. She is a very affectionate cat, you can hold her in your arms, cuddle her and what she likes most is to sit with you. She is less sociable with cats although she lives with them and she could be with another cat as long as she is calm and not dominant. She is positive for Leukaemia

Is available for adoption: Yes
